"WATCH YOUR PEP"

CAMEO COMEDY
With Cliff Bowes
and Virginia Vance

The Pickwicks are bound for their cabin site at Malaria Lake where the women expect to spend a quiet summer and the men expect to spend everything else. Papa Pickwick and his son-in-law, Cliff, accompany the women and act as plain and fancy baggage-bearers. They ^{have} more baggage than the Russian Army and papa and Cliff are almost lost under the mass of it.

When the train starts Cliff and his father-in-law still retain their abilities to get themselves into a lot of first class trouble and manage to stick on the train only through the fact that the conductor is more than kind hearted.

At Malaria Lake their troubles still pursue them. The only fun dad and son-in-law have is when mother falls in the lake, but they pull her out, which ruins a perfect ending to an otherwise 100% imperfect day.

These one-reel rough and tumble comedies are proving mighty popular as program items on bills containing extra-long features.
